

The Finance Boot Camp

by Frankfurt School of Finance & Management

What is a butterfly?

- a) A beautiful insect
- b) A pretty tiring way to swim
- c) An investment strategy

An Inspirational, Sporty 2-Week Summer Experience

You didn't choose to study Finance at your university, but now you're curious to find out more about the major financial products and investment strategies. You want a better understanding of the news; you dream about becoming the next George Soros – maybe you've even thought about going into banking after all.

Scheduled for summer 2017, Frankfurt School's Boot Camp targets non-finance Bachelor and first-year Master students seeking to develop and / or deepen their financial skills in one of Europe's leading financial centres: Frankfurt am Main.

When you opt for this course, you're also choosing to benefit from our immediate proximity to prestigious financial institutions such as the European Central Bank (ECB) and the Deutsche Bundesbank, Germany's own central bank. The Boot Camp, due to be held on the Frankfurt School campus over two weeks in July 2017, will combine a challenging academic programme with plenty of opportunities to network with and enjoy the company of your fellow students. In addition, there will be plenty of opportunities to engage in athletic activity for those who wish to – such as swimming with our Associate Dean!

Content & Objectives

The purpose of this Boot Camp is to enhance the financial and banking knowledge of Bachelor and first-year Master students who want to know more about major banking and financial topics. The programme provides an introduction to the fields of finance and banking in a European context. If you'd like to learn about the key aspects of finance and banking in just two weeks – this programme is the right one for you. Demanding and intensive, it delivers all the banking essentials.

Taught entirely in English, the Boot Camp attracts highly motivated students from Germany and other countries around the world. Spending a fortnight abroad will give you additional international exposure. And last but not least, you'll benefit from Frankfurt School's excellent connections to banks, financial institutions and consulting firms. Participants are expected to be fluent in English.

Explore the region!

Welcome to Frankfurt!

As a lively city, with a profusion of cultural activities to suit all tastes, Frankfurt has plenty to offer visitors. Regardless of your preferred leisure pursuits – museums, concerts, opera, cinema or theatre – you’ll find plenty of interesting things to see, listen to, visit and appreciate in Frankfurt. The Alte Oper, Städel and Schirn Kunsthalle are all cultural venues with global reputations, ready to inspire you with the finest art and music. The promenade along the River Main is an inviting venue for a pleasant stroll or an invigorating run! And Frankfurt’s swimming pools offer plenty of opportunities for aquatic fun or serious fitness training.

Excursion Weekend to Heidelberg

Yes, the Boot Camp features plenty of work and learning – but that doesn’t mean that your two-week stay won’t also be enjoyable. As well as seeing the sights in Frankfurt, you’ll be making a trip to Heidelberg, where attractions include the world-famous castle, a vibrant student scene, many fine restaurants, shopping opportunities and cultural offerings.
